RE: Louisa Court – 1360 Burnaby Street, Vancouver, BC (“The Property”)

We, the undersigned, have requested that various materials, documents, information, and other matters regarding the Property (“Property Information”) be delivered and disclosed to us by you. As a condition to, and in consideration of, the delivery and disclosure of the Property Information by you to us, we agree as follows:

- Purpose: We have been advised that Cushman & Wakefield ULC has been retained on an exclusive basis by Telford Building Ltd. (the “Vendor”) with respect to selling the Property. The Vendor has indicated that all inquiries and communications with respect to the contemplated sale of the Property be directed to Cushman & Wakefield ULC.
- Confidentiality: We are active as a principal and agree to use the Property Information only for the purpose of evaluating our desire to acquire the Property, and not for any other purpose whatsoever. We agree that all of the Property Information is confidential and that we shall not disclose any of the Property Information in any manner whatsoever, except to the extent that the Property Information is (a) generally publicly available through no act of the undersigned, or (b) required to be disclosed by law. We agree not to disclose to any person or party (other than our institutional lenders, employees, legal counsel, and consultants, provided they agree to be bound to the same extent as the undersigned by this agreement) the fact that discussions or negotiations are taking place concerning the possible acquisition of the Property, without the prior written consent of Cushman & Wakefield ULC and the Vendor.
- Indemnity: We agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Cushman & Wakefield ULC and the Vendor, and the respective partners, members, shareholders and employees of each of them, against any loss, liability or expense, including legal fees, arising out of any breach of the terms of this agreement. We confirm that we are acting as a principal or investment advisor with respect to the potential acquisition of the Property, and not as broker, and will not look to the Vendor or Cushman & Wakefield ULC for any fees or commissions.
- Disclaimer and Waiver: We acknowledge that neither you nor any of your representatives make or have made any representations or warranties regarding the accuracy or completeness of the Property Information.
- Binding Agreement: Upon execution hereof, this agreement shall be a binding agreement between the undersigned, Cushman & Wakefield ULC, and the Vendor.

Your Relationship with a Real Estate Professional

Real estate professionals have a regulatory requirement to present you with this consumer information before providing services to you.

This information explains the different relationships you can have with a real estate professional to buy, sell or lease property. Before you disclose confidential information to a real estate professional regarding a real estate transaction, you should understand what type of business relationship you have with that individual.

BC Financial Services Authority

is the legislated regulatory agency that works to ensure real estate professionals have the skills and knowledge to provide you with a high standard of service. All real estate professionals must follow rules that help protect consumers, like you. We're here to help you understand your rights as a real estate consumer.

Keep this information page for your reference.

You can work with a real estate professional in one of the following ways:

AS A CLIENT

If you are the client of a real estate professional, they work on your behalf. The real estate professional representing you has special legal duties to you, including:

- Loyalty. They will act only in your best interests.
- Full disclosure. They must tell you everything they know that might influence your decision in a transaction.
- Avoid conflicts of interest. They must avoid any situation that would affect their duty to act in your best interests.
- Confidentiality. They must not reveal your private information without your permission, even after your relationship ends. That includes:
  - your reasons for buying, selling or leasing
  - your minimum/maximum price
  - any preferred terms and conditions you may want to include in a contract

When you become a client, you may be asked to sign a written agreement setting out your and the real estate professional's responsibilities.

AS A NON-CLIENT

A real estate professional who is not representing you as a client does not owe you special legal duties:

- No loyalty. They may be representing a client with competing interests to yours in a transaction. They must be loyal to their client, not you.
- No duty of full disclosure. They do not have a duty to give you all relevant information.
- No duty to avoid conflicts. They are not acting in your interests.
- No confidentiality. They must share any information you tell them with their clients in a transaction.

As a non-client, a real estate professional may give you only limited services.

Whenever a real estate professional works with you in a real estate transaction, whether you are their client or not, they have a responsibility to act honestly and with reasonable care and skill.

Did you know buyers have a right to cancel a contract to purchase some types of residential real property in B.C.?

Not a Client? Know the Risks

Real estate professionals have a regulatory requirement to present you with this consumer information.

This information from BC Financial Services Authority explains the risks of working with a real estate professional who is already representing a client in the same transaction.

We recommend that you seek independent representation in this real estate transaction.

BE CAUTIOUS.

The real estate professional who gave you this form is already representing a client in this transaction. They owe a duty of loyalty to that client and must work in that client's best interests. They cannot represent you or work in your interests in this transaction.

This real estate professional must tell their client any relevant information you share with them. For example, if disclosed by you, they must share the following information:

- your reasons for buying, selling or leasing
- your minimum/maximum price
- any preferred terms and conditions you may want to include in a contract

Only share information that you are comfortable being disclosed to the other party in this transaction.

BC Financial Services Authority is the legislated regulatory agency that works to ensure real estate professionals have the skills and knowledge to provide you with a high standard of service. All real estate professionals must follow rules that help protect consumers, like you. We're here to help you understand your rights as a real estate consumer.

Keep this information page for your reference.

This real estate professional can only provide you very limited services. Because this real estate professional must be loyal to their client and work in their client's interest, they can only give you limited assistance.

THEY CANNOT:

- ✗ give you advice on an appropriate price
- ✗ give you advice about any terms and conditions to include in a contract
- ✗ negotiate on your behalf
- ✗ share any of their client's confidential information with you, like:
  - their minimum/maximum price
  - their reason for buying/selling/leasing.
- ✗ protect your confidential information

THEY CAN:

- ✓ share general information and real estate statistics
- ✓ show a property and provide factual information about the property
- ✓ provide you with standard real estate forms and contracts
- ✓ fill out a standard real estate contract
- ✓ communicate your messages and present your offers to their client

DISCLOSURE OF RISKS TO UNREPRESENTED PARTIES

This is a required disclosure form in compliance with section 55 of the Real Estate Services Rules. A real estate professional must present the Not a Client? Know the Risks information page to you along with this form.

REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL DISCLOSURE DETAILS

I am already representing a client in this transaction and working in only their best interest. I am not representing you or acting on your behalf.
